"The Store of To-day and To-morrow"

Social and Personal

Quantities of fragrant spring blossoms and palms will be used to bank the chancel of the Monument Methodist Episcopal Church, South, this evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Edith Allen Denny, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Collins Denny, will be married to Roscoe Marvin White, son of Joseph White, of Portsmouth. The ceremony will be performed by the bride's father, in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends, and the wedding party will be composed of Miss Edith Allen Denny, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Collins Denny, and Mrs. F. D. Hequem-bourg.

The bride will enter the church with her brother-in-law, Rev. J. W. Dixon, who will give her away. Her wedding gown is of white broadcloth, trimmed with real lace and embroidery of seed pearls, and the drapery of the skirt is festooned with a spray of artificial orange blossoms. Sent from Brazil by the bride's sister, Mrs. E. E. Vann, her long veil of illusion will fall to the hem of her gown and will be arranged in a cap effect, with a wreath of natural orange blossoms, sent from Florida, especially for her. She will carry a shower bouquet of pink roses. Little Elizabeth Denny Dixon, who will be flower girl, will wear a frock of embroidered silk and will carry a golden basket filled with white sweet peas. The ushers will be J. L. Finch, of Clarksville; E. T. Drewry, of this city; J. R. Worthington, of Norfolk, and R. K. Dawson, of Norfolk.

The bridesmaids will be Misses Kathleen Bond, of Baltimore; Margaret James, of Newton, Mass.; both cousins of the bride; Kate Tillett, of Nashville, Tenn.; and Penelope White, of Portsmouth, a sister of the groom. Their gowns are of white voile, combined with tulle and they will wear short tulle veils and carry shower bouquets of pink sweet peas. Little Elizabeth Denny Dixon, who will be flower girl, will wear a frock of embroidered silk and will carry a golden basket filled with white sweet peas. The ushers will be J. L. Finch, of Clarksville; E. T. Drewry, of this city; J. R. Worthington, of Norfolk, and R. K. Dawson, of Norfolk.

An informal reception for the bridal party and relatives of the bride and groom will follow the ceremony at the church, after which Mr. White and his bride will leave for a Northern wedding journey. Out-of-town guests here for the wedding are:
